Stock up the sleigh for one and all

Fa-la-la-la shop! Turkey Day has come and gone, which means it's time to turn your attention to holiday shopping for each person on your ever-growing list. USA TODAY teamed up with Santa's little helpers to uncover something special for everyone from wine lovers to sports enthusiasts to fashionistas.

Luxe World Grand Four Box, $110 at LuxeByCaldesi.com

FOR THE CHEF

A cut above: What better way to signify he's the king of the kitchen than with a monogrammed cutting board? This high-quality board is handcrafted of pressed bamboo and features a natural hand-rubbed olive oil finish. The creativity factor by choosing your own custom two-line personalization such as "Sandra's Kitchen, Seasoned with Love."

FOR THE PET LOVER

Is Fido freezing? Don't be fooled by all of that fur. Dogs get chilly too, and what better way to make them cozy this winter than with a cute, reusable, machine-washable sweater from Ralph Lauren? The 100% cotton sweater is available in red or royal blue in sizes extra-small to large.

Aromatherapy candles

For pet, $25 at SniffIt candles.com

No odor, no indigestion

Let's face it — sometimes your furry friend's fragrance is, well, not so fetching. Enter the Furb & Away aromatherapy candle for dogs. A mix of ylang ylang, tuberose, white tea, myrtle and fennel, the candle was developed not only to deodorize, but to ease your dog's stomach rumblings. Other scents with a purpose include: Friends to the Rescue (fights pests), Field of Dreams (eases stress), Day in the Hamptons (summer fun) and Splendor in the Grass (brings outdoors in).

Mar by Marc Jacobs Sables on a Frame crossbody bag in cream, $298 at Faded.com

FOR THE FASHIONISTA

An eye for style: The "it" gal on your list will go gaga over this cherry purse by Marc Jacobs. Despite its over-the-top factor and mirrored leather panels, the bag is in a neutral color, which means it can be worn with just about everything in her closet.

FOR THE SPORTS LOVER

Three cheers: "Athletics" and "art" aren't typically uttered in the same breath, but the creators at 20x200 have found a way for fans to have her fun fix — without junking up the living room. The olive art piece with hand-drawn prints depicting everything from brightly bearded baseballs to fog-obscured fields to this cool collage of stadiums. Sports mania has rarely looked so mounted-severely.

125 Stadiums by Jerry Oake, $50 to $1,000, depending on piece size, at 20x200.com

FOR THE MUSIC FAN

Sonata like a volcano: If the tech lover on your gift list is into aviator sunglasses, how about getting a matching set of headphones to pump up the volume? Jay-Z, Rick Rubin and Shikanyan go together to create Shikanyan Rock. Nylon Aviator headphones, which combine a sleek attitude with a retro design. Charlotte Thorne, Jennifer Hudson, Rihanna and Vanessa Hudgens have all been spotted donning these stylish, sound-carrying panels, the bag is in a neutral color, which means it can be worn with just about everything in her closet.

FOR THE GIRLIE GIRL

Doll'd-up ride: She already drives a dune buggy, a camper and a Corvette. So what does Barbie need next for her growing girl fleet? A VW Beetle, of course, with fun lighting, doors, trunk and wheelcut. An actual doll comes with the car — ensuring that there are enough Barbies for every wheel in her garage.

Barbie Volkswagen Beetle and doll set by Mattel, $49.99 at K&M's stores

THE SAVVY TEEN

Is the '80s forget Barbies? Sometimes parents will do back it old school — having to do one and Dad's Atari 2600 — in the most modern with the K-cube, which is a 2011 iPad into a 1980s-style arcade, no quarters. The hardest part with Dad's hand away.

MAN

Did a nod to how his dad did his smartphone dock. The smartphone and power light catch a giggle.
